

Olmec Heads & pictures

http://anthropology.si.edu/olmec/cfm/site_images/DigSiteImages_Detail.cfm?ID=45

Data Record ID: 45

Catalogue ID: stirling_54

Published In: Stirling 1940: 310; Stirling 1943b: 56-57 and plate 42a

Site: La Venta, Tabasco

Photographer: Richard H. Stewart

Year: 1940

Collection: M.W. Stirling collection, National Anthropological Archives

Notes: La Venta Monument 1. ___This colossal head was the first of four such heads excavated by Matthew Stirling during the 2nd archaeological expedition to La Venta. _____

http://anthropology.si.edu/olmec/cfml/site_images/DigSiteImages_Detail.cfm?ID=10

Data Record ID: 10

Catalogue ID: stirling_13

Published In: Stirling 1943b: 16-17 and plate 4ab

Site: Tres Zapotes, Veracruz

Photographer: Richard H. Stewart

Year: 1939

Collection: M.W. Stirling collection, National Anthropological Archives

Notes: Tres Zapotes Monument A. ___The colossal head is carved from a block of grey basalt. At the time of its excavation, Stirling speculated that the head had been carved and quarried locally, or possibly at a site 10 miles away. Since then, scholars have suggested various other origins for the basalt. ___